Welcome to the
2008 National Junior Angus Show
July 13-19, 2008

Dear Angus Exhibitors, Breeders and Enthusiasts,

Your friends from Iowa are proud and excited to welcome you back to our great state for the 2008 edition of the National Junior Angus Show. Since the 2000 “New Millennium” NJAS, Iowa has continued to be a leader in agricultural commodities and renewable energy. Today, Iowa ranks first in ethanol, corn, swine, and egg production; second in soybean and red meat production.

As the United States is a “breadwinner” for the world, it is hard to imagine that there is hunger and suffering across our own country. In the spirit of this year’s theme, “Christmas in July,” which brings to mind thoughts of giving and sharing, we have a special request. We ask that each visiting state bring donations of money, stuffed animals, personal care products, backpacks and school supplies to be distributed to various family shelters around the country. As each state is introduced during the opening ceremony, members will bring gifts and place them on the stage. Our goal is to have a mountain of goods by the time each state has been introduced. What an impressive display this will be! More importantly, it will be so uplifting to know that we will brighten a child’s life through sharing our abundance of blessings.

We would like to express our most sincere gratitude and thanks to the many sponsors, advertisers, volunteers, parents, and Angus staff that have made “Christmas in July” a reality.

With much appreciation,

Advisor of the Year

2008 National Junior
Angus Show
Des Moines, Iowa

Michelle Rieff

2008 Advisor of the Year

Enthusiastic, encouraging and inspirational are words used to describe Michelle Rieff, Bentonville, Ark. She exhibits these characteristics as she serves the Arkansas Junior Angus Association in all aspects from guidance in meetings to helping juniors make important decisions.

“Time and time again, I have watched her give to others unselfishly and without regard to her own personal cost,” says Sonja Martin, Lavaca, Ark.

For her dedication and leadership to the Arkansas Junior Angus Association (NJAA) advisor of the year at the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), July 13-19 in Des Moines, Iowa.

During her six years as an advisor Rieff worked hard for the juniors and helped to implement officer training, create a state awards program, compile etiquette guidelines for state queens and princesses and hosted three preview shows.

“During her term as advisor the membership of the Arkansas Junior Angus Association tripled, and the programs that she helped to put into place are still working today,” says Shirley Williams, Fort Smith, Ark.

Leading by example, she promotes proper conduct in meetings and encourages parliamentary procedure. Rieff makes sure officers and members understand the importance of conducting an efficient meeting.

Rieff always shows passion in working with juniors and includes even the youngest members. “She has never made them feel like they are too little to be included,” says Sheri Tunstill, Fayetteville, Ark. Her daughter Katy was only 4 years old when Rieff started her advising term.

“She wanted us to know even though we were younger that our ideas and thoughts were important,” Katy says. “This helped me gain confidence in myself at a very young age.”

In addition to her involvement with the Arkansas Junior Angus Association, Rieff is currently serving as the 2008 American Angus Auxiliary president-elect. She continues to be active in the Arkansas Cattlemen’s Association and is a 4-H leader.

With a background as a school counselor, Rieff has a unique ability to encourage and teach junior members. “It always amazed me how she could persuade a shy youngster to pick up a microphone, participate in a skit or lead an unruly heifer into the show ring,” Williams says. Williams’s daughter, Arkansas junior member Elizabeth, enjoys Rieff’s enthusiasm. “Her smile is contagious,” Elizabeth says. “She makes me laugh even when things are not going my way.”

Rieff also gives support to older members who need guidance in life-changing decisions. Martin described a time when her son Jarrett was working towards his goal of being a member of the NJAA board. She in part credits his success to Rieff. “She taught him and guided him as an advisor and it eventually led to a life changing experience with the NJAA,” Martin says.

With advisors like Rieff, it is certain that Angus junior members are learning by example how to be good leaders and good people. Rieff’s involvement in junior programs demonstrates how young members can profit in immeasurable ways from positive influence and encouragement.

HONORARY ANGUS FOUNDATION

2008 National Junior Angus Show – Des Moines, Iowa

HONORED FOR A LIFETIME OF DEDICATION TO ANGUS

Stannard Honored for Involvement with NJAA

A dedication to juniors and Angus breeders that goes beyond her job description has made Shelia Stannard, director of communications and events for the American Angus Association®, Saint Joseph, Mo., a standout contributor of her time and abilities to the Angus industry.

For her enduring commitment and adoration for the people of Angus industry, Shelia Stannard will be inducted into the Honorary Angus Foundation at the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), July 13-19 in Des Moines, Iowa.

Each year the National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) selects exceptional individuals to join the Honorary Angus Foundation. Inductees have shown a significant dedication and genuine interest in the future of junior members and the NJAA.

“She is a remarkable person with incredible talent, an infectious smile and deep heart for not only the Angus breed, but its beliefs and its members,” says Mallory Trosper, NJAA director.

Stannard has shown outstanding devotion by serving eight years on the NJAA advisory board. She has welcomed, mentored and guided many junior members.

Junior members and Angus breeders know her as a person with a friendly smile who is enthusiastic to meet new people. She reaches out to all members, shows a sincere curiosity in getting to know each one and kindly takes the time to do so.

“She showed an interest and because of her I got involved,” says Sonya Smith, Lebanon, Tenn., a past NJAA board chairperson, as she reflected on her first interactions with Stannard.

“She is great in coordinating events and can handle any obstacle thrown her way,” says Walt Stinson, a director for the junior board. He says she is eager to answer questions and holds incredible skills in working with others.

“Shelia has always put the Association members first in her life, especially the junior members,” says Jamie King, Tiffin, Ohio, who is also a past NJAA board member. “She always takes time to talk to juniors and help them develop into young adults.”

Stannard is considered a mentor, role model and good friend to many junior members who have formed a relationship with her throughout their involvement in the NJAA. “I can’t even describe the impact that she has had not only on me, but all the other junior members that have been lucky enough to cross her path,” Smith says.

King looks to Stannard for advice as her career has taken a similar path. “I have often heard Shelia say that she wouldn’t trade her job or the people for whom she works for anything in the world,” King says. “As an Angus breeder, former junior board member and NJAA member, and fellow agricultural communicator, I take great comfort in that statement and look forward to her continuing to serve the Angus breed.”

“Shelia has earned this award because of the amount of time she has donated to the NJAA,” says Rebecca Tokach, NJAA Foundation director. Her guidance and involvement with juniors and the NJAA has left an impact on many and has helped to make the organization stronger.

Thomas Honored for Contributions to NJAA

Possessing a compassionate and giving character, along with his advocacy for hard work, Stan Thomas of Three Trees Ranch, Sharpsburg, Ga., has become a highly respected and appreciated man in the Angus industry.

For his continual financial support and service to the Angus breed, Thomas will be inducted into the Honorary Angus Foundation at the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), July 13-19, in Des Moines, Iowa.

Each year outstanding supporters of the National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) are selected to join the Honorary Angus Foundation. Inductees have shown significant interest and dedication to junior members.

Thomas became an Angus breeder in 1994 when he purchased 100 head of bred cows. Since then his herd has grown to be the second largest American Angus Association® member based on the 1,865 registrations of the last fiscal year. He has generously used his growth to support the NJAA, the Angus Foundation and future leaders of the breed.

“When he has a passion or belief in something he will go out of his way to support that organization,” says Rebecca Tokach, NJAA Foundation director.

Thomas donated the 2005 Angus Foundation Heifer and purchased a portion of the 2003 Foundation heifer. Proceeds from this funding program go to support education, youth and research.

He has provided opportunities for juniors by supporting education and providing donations to raise funds for the young members.

“Stan supports junior Angus breeders through the donation of semen from his herd sires and embryos from his famous and valuable donors,” says Dick Beck, Senoia, Ga., general manager of Three Trees Ranch.

Thomas greatly contributed to the success of the annual youth leadership conference, Leaders Engaged in Angus Development (LEAD). He welcomed nearly 200 people to Three Trees Ranch and provided a tour of his operation through which he had his specialists speak to the group about embryo transfer in his operation. In addition to the education, he provided a social atmosphere with a dinner and a dance. The youth got a treat when Thomas offered each a helicopter ride to view his ranch from above.

“The enthusiasm that he showed for the juniors while we were at the ranch proved that he was an excellent candidate for the award,” Tokach says.

Thomas has not only been a contributor through financial means, he is a positive example by his character and interaction with other breeders. “Stan is a warm and compassionate man who always has a smile and a handshake for an Angus breeder, old or young, new or established,” Beck says.

He is recognized throughout the industry as a man of deep and sincere faith, Beck says. “Stan has become an unofficial chaplain for the Angus bred and is often called upon to lead the assembled crowd in prayer at Angus events and sales,” Beck adds. “The example he has set in the opening of his own Angus sales has become the model that many in the industry now follow.”

HONORARY ANGUS FOUNDATION

2008 National Junior Angus Show – Des Moines, Iowa

C.J. Brown Honored for Contributions to NJAA

By capturing the serenity and beauty of the Angus breed, C.J. Brown, Lindenwood, Ill., uses her artistic talents to support the Angus industry.

For her creative contributions and dedication to the Angus breed and National Junior Angus Association (NJAA), Brown will be inducted into the Honorary Angus Foundation at the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), July 13-19 in Des Moines, Iowa.

Each year extraordinary supporters of the NJAA are selected to join the Honorary Angus Foundation. Inductees are chosen for their exceptional interest and dedication to junior members and the NJAA.

Growing up on a farm in northern Illinois, Brown appreciates the rural lifestyle and having been around cattle, her interests turned to painting the animals she is so passionate about.

Brown is known for her willingness to provide originals and prints for fundraising efforts for the Angus breed.

"The past few years she has donated original work to be auctioned for national junior shows," says James Fisher, director of junior activities for the American Angus Association®. Fisher adds that she also assists state associations in fundraising by providing prints of her work.

Her recent involvement includes the commissioned piece titled "Angus Blessing" that was created to raise funds for the 2008 NJAS. The original watercolor was auctioned off for $7,500.

"We are thankful for her willingness to donate her talent and even livelihood to the juniors," Fisher says. She has designed the 2009 NJAS logo for the host state Georgia.

Her pieces are exhibited in the American Angus Hall of Fame, the Canadian Angus Association, Excel-Beef Division and other corporate businesses that have ties to the beef industry.

"C.J. has a special talent as an artist, but has also become an individual that is a regular attendee at various shows and industry events across the country," says Shelia Stannard, director of communications and events for the Association. "She always takes time to visit with our members of all ages and gives unselfishly of her talent to many state organizations."

Brown has a charitable spirit and takes pleasure in sharing her talents. She is a wonderful example of how creativity and philanthropy can offer countless opportunities to others.

Wallace Honored by NJAA

A caring person who knows no end to giving of time and energy makes Tammy Wallace, Stotts City, Mo., an exceptional individual who feels like family to many in the Angus industry.

"She is a special person who has given a lot; as much as she could give," says Amanda Schnoor, Chowchilla, Calif., a former Foundation director of the National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) board.

For her commitment to and affection for the people of the Angus industry and their organizations, Wallace will be inducted into the Honorary Angus Foundation at the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), July 13-19 in Des Moines, Iowa.

Each year the NJAA chooses outstanding individuals to join the Honorary Angus Foundation. Inductees exemplify a significant devotion and genuine interest in the future of junior members and the NJAA.

Wallace is involved in many facets of the Angus breed and her passion for the members and Angus cattle radiates in each undertaking. She is active in both the Missouri Junior Angus Association and the NJAA along with being an American Angus Auxiliary member. Among her many involvements, Wallace has served as the Southwest Missouri Junior Angus Association advisor, a contest workshop co-chairperson and a regional show co-chairperson. Wallace has also served six years on the NJAA advisory board.

"She gives time and energy not only to attend meetings, but to go beyond what is asked of her as an advisor," says James Fisher, American Angus Association® director of junior activities.

Being involved in breed associations all her life and now the mother of two junior members, Wallace has a deep understanding of how experiences with the NJAA can leave a positive impact on members. She was able to bring a unique perspective to the role of NJAA advisor.

"She has been in our place," Schnoor says. "I think she realizes that one day the NJAA will give the same opportunities to her children."

Mallory Trosper, Hamilton, Mo., a NJAA director, has known Wallace many years and appreciates the time she has spent working with her. "She is not only an advisor but a teacher, always willing to help any junior with whatever they may need, giving them instruction and a knowledge base which they can learn upon," Trosper says. "Tammy dedicates not only her time to the adult and junior associations, but her whole heart."

Trosper says Wallace is a firm believer in the associations being like family. With her character and devotion for all she is involved in, the people of the Angus industry are lucky to have a family member like Wallace.

The National Junior Angus Showmanship Contest was organized by Dean Hurlbut in 1967 to encourage young men and women to become interested in showing Angus cattle. Hurlbut coordinated the contest from its start until his retirement in July 2000 from the American Angus Association.

In honor of his dedication to this excellent competition, the top award in the contest is named the Dean Hurlbut Award.

NATIONAL JUNIOR ANGUS SHOWMANSHIP CONTEST

July 17 & 19, 2008
Des Moines, Iowa

In order to emphasize the widespread interest in Angus cattle among young men and women from farming communities throughout the United States, the 42nd National Junior Angus Showmanship Contest is being held in conjunction with the National Junior Angus Show.

The contest is under the supervision of the Junior Activities Department of the American Angus Association and will be held in two parts. On Thursday, July 17 at 1:30 p.m., the contestants will show animals in the preliminary competition. The finals will be held Saturday, July 19 at 8 a.m.

Prizes awarded by the Angus Foundation and funded in part by the Hamilton James Memorial Fund will be as follows: First, $350; second, $250; third, $175; fourth, $125; fifth, $100. The American Angus Association will award $75 to sixth through the remaining places. The American Angus Auxiliary presents silver Revere bowls to the top five placing showmen. The 15 finalists will receive a set of Andis® clippers donated by Andis®.

The young people competing have been selected in their state contests conducted by their state Angus associations. Contestants' birth dates must be from January 1, 1987 through December 31, 1993. The heifers have been drawn by lot from exhibitors in the National Junior Angus Show.

The showmanship event will be judged by a panel of outstanding showmen. They will consider the following in making their placings:

BLACK KETTLE AWARD

Presented in memory of Paul St. Blanc to the highest placing team among all age groups.

The Black Kettle Award

The Black Kettle Award is given in memory of Paul B. St. Blanc. Following the death of Mr. St. Blanc his family looked for a way to honor his memory and looked no further than the National Junior Angus Show and the Certified Angus Beef (registered trademark) Cook-Off Contest. Mr. St. Blanc had a great passion for cooking and combined that passion with his love of family, Angus cattle and youth. He participated in the first Cook-Off Contest held at the NJAS and was a frequent contestant in subsequent years. Each year he could be found behind the scenes helping teams to light grills and prepare entries. Many of his "Angus friends" enjoyed delicious meals cooked in his black pot, or "kettle," in the tie outs or near the show box at Angus shows throughout the country. He always seemed to find "one more serving" in that pot for a new friend.

Paul St. Blanc became a member of the American Angus Association in 1953 and along with his grandfather, father and brothers started Bar S Angus in Charenton, Louisiana. He passed his interest in Angus cattle onto his children and countless other youth as an Angus breeder, vocational agriculture teacher and Louisiana Junior Angus Association Advisor. In 1974, he took his children and junior Angus members from Louisiana to the National Junior Angus Heifer Show in Dallas, Texas, starting a tradition that did not end until his untimely death in 1999. Paul and his wife Vicki were named NJAA Advisors of the Year in 1982 and later inducted into the Honorary Angus Foundation. Today his children and grandchildren carry on his love of Angus cattle and the National Junior Angus Show.

The Black Kettle Award was established in 1999 and first presented during the 2000 National Junior Angus Show in Des Moines, Iowa. It is annually awarded to the highest scoring team among all categories and age divisions in the American Angus Auxiliary sponsored Certified Angus Beef® Cook-Off Contest.

Each member of the 1st place team in the senior division of the Team Sales contest will be presented with a limited print of a specially commissioned artwork done in memory of Robert "Bob" Laflin. This art work commemorates Bob's enthusiasm for sales and depicts an Angus breeder looking at show heifer prospects in the field with two young Angus breeders as he helps them select that next great one.

Bob was a consummate salesman and marketer. He sold Angus cattle throughout the United States and believed that to be successful as an Angus breeder you had to be willing to sell some of your best ones. Bob believed in family and in investing in youth. He encouraged his children and grandchildren to be involved in the junior Angus programs and was always willing to help other youth who were interested in Angus cattle. Bob encouraged his grandchildren to participate in the Team Sales contest and was always at the National Junior Angus Show to cheer them on in the competition.

It is in his memory and honor that the Laflin family through the Angus Foundation present these special awards.

Pat Grote was a woman dedicated to the members of the Texas Junior Angus Association and National Junior Angus Association (NJAA). She encouraged not only her own children, but all juniors to get involved in the NJAA and even gave them rides to the National Junior Angus Show.

"Pat had a charmisa that pulled you into work, laugh and support the juniors!" said Nancy Sullivan, friend and American Angus Auxiliary past president.

She believed in all the kids and the benefits the NJAA provided for them.

"One thing she believed in was educating the kids about beef," said her husband Glen. "She also liked to give kids a pat on the back for a job well done."

The Pat Grote Fund will pay the registration fee for the Leaders Engaged in Angus Development (LEAD) Conference to the overall winners in the intermediate division of the fresh meat category of the Auxiliary sponsored All-American Certified Angus Beef® Cook-Off.

Pat was president of the American Angus Auxiliary at her time of passing. In Pat's honor the American Angus Auxiliary will present the Grote Memorial Award to the first place intermediate extemporaneous public speakers. The award will be given annually at the NJAS.

Pat Grote

Dick Spader

The Richard L. Spader award is given by the American Angus Auxiliary to the winner of the senior division in the extemporaneous public speaking contest. This award recognizes Dick's unending support for the life skills contests offered through the National Junior Angus Association. Dick was especially supportive of the speech competitions and encouraged junior members, including his sons, to participate in these contests. It is in his memory and in recognition of his support of these programs that the Auxiliary presents this award. In addition to this award the Angus Foundation presents the top two scholarships in memory of Richard L. Spader.

JANET CASTLE CRYSTAL AWARD

The Janet Castle Crystal Award is in memory of Janet Castle, and is made possible by a generous donation from her family to the American Angus Auxiliary. Janet served as president of the Auxiliary in 1962 and was one of the founders of the Auxiliary scholarship fund. Janet's vision and dedication has helped many junior Angus members, and it is appropriate that the Auxiliary sponsor this award in her honor. This award is based on placings in the NJAA contests, which include CAB Cook-Off, team sales, extemporaneous and prepared speeches, poster, photography, graphic design, quiz bowl, and creative writing. Two awards are presented yearly: one each to the overall high-point girl and the high-point boy.

“And if all you ever really do is the best you can...”

“Something To Be Proud Of” written by Jeffrey Steele and Chris Wallin recorded by Montgomery Gentry

You learn pretty fast at these things that not everybody is going to win, even some who deserve it most.

But what often escapes all of us in 100 degree heat, under the stress of a jam-packed schedule and the pressures presented by the unexpected, is that there can be glory in the details of the everyday. That there's victory in accepting a challenge when you may not even have a chance. And that lasting achievement will find you when you learn to focus on the things you did right... when how you have improved matters more than how you placed.

If you can start the day and end it believing, rather than worrying or just wishing for what you want.
If you can show up and do your part without squabbling or whining or skipping out before the job is done.
If you can forget yourself for just a moment and realize that everyone has a right to their ideas and their space.
If you can put the best of you – tired body, jumbled mind and spent spirit – into every task that comes your way.
If you can set aside past experiences and “old business” and open your mind to the flip side of the pancake.
If you can be cheerful in the face of disappointment, hopeful for your next attempt and thankful for both.

If you can accept another's differences with a smile because you know you can be pretty weird yourself.
If you can find a way to say good luck, or congratulations, to a longtime rival...and truly mean it.
If you can slow down to help a stranger without being asked, or needing to be thanked.
If you can spare feelings by keeping what you think, or what you've heard, to yourself.
If you can learn one new thing, give one more try, and invite one extra person to be part of your group.
If you can walk out with your head held high, satisfied that you've done what you've said you'd do.

If you can grow up just a little, no matter your age, because of this day and how you have lived it...

That's the
and it's something to be proud of.

The extraordinary triumphs of 100 NJAA members at the show will be recognized by “Angus Star” awards with our best wishes for many more successes in life!

Everyone has something to give...

...it doesn't have to be substantial to be significant, nor expensive to be valuable.

The simplest gifts are often the most cherished – a helping hand, a welcoming smile, a listening ear, a pat on the back, a sincere compliment, a moment of patience, a little more time.
Each of us has unique gifts that make us the individuals we are.
And each day brings an opportunity to make the most of our gifts by using them to make life better for someone else.

*In a random drawing during the awards program, one lucky NJAA member will receive a GIFT from Cherry Knoll Farm – a confirmed pregnancy from
